

The Mount Marty University Financial Assistance Office accepts and adheres to the NASFAA Statement of Ethical Principles and US Department of Education Code of Conduct

STATEMENT OF ETHICAL PRINCIPLES

The primary goal of the financial aid professional is to help students achieve their educational goals through financial support and resources. NASFAA members are required to exemplify the highest level of ethical behavior and demonstrate the highest level of professionalism.

We, financial aid professionals, declare our commitment	Comply with federal and state laws to the following Statement of Ethical Principles.	Adhere to all applicable laws and regulations governing federal, state, and institutional financial aid programs.
Financial aid administrators shall:	Actively participate in ongoing professional development and continuing education programs to Advocate for students	ensure ample understanding of statutes, regulations, and Remain aware of issues affecting students and 	best practices governing the financial aid programs.
continually advocate for their interests at the institutional,	Encourage colleagues to participate in the financial aid state and federal levels.	professional associations available to them at the state, Support federal, state and institutional efforts to	regional, or national level and offer assistance to other encourage students, as early as the elementary grades,	aid professionals as needed.
to aspire to and plan for education beyond high school.
	Strive for transparency and clarity
Manifest the highest level of integrity	Provide our students and parents with the information Commit to the highest level of ethical behavior and	they need to make good decisions about attending and refrain from conflict of interest or the perception thereof.	paying for college.
Deal with others honestly and fairly, abiding by our	 Educate students and families through quality information that is consumer-tested when possible. This commitments and always acting in a manner that merits the trust and confidence others have placed in us.	includes (but is not limited to) transparency and full
 Protect the privacy of individual student financial 	disclosure on award notices.
records.	Ensure equity by applying all need-analysis formulas consistently across the institution's full population of Promote the free expression of ideas and opinions, and factor respect for diverse viewpoints within the	student financial aid applicants.
foster respect for diverse viewpoints within the	 Inform institutions, students, and parents of any profession.	changes in financial aid programs that could affect their student aid eligibility.
Support student access and success
 Commit to removing financial barriers for those who 	Protect the privacy of financial aid applicants want to pursue postsecondary learning and support each	Protect the privacy of financial aid applicants student admitted to our institution.	Ensure that student and parent private information
• Without charge, assist students in applying for financial	provided to the financial aid office by financial aid aid funds.	applicants is protected in accordance with all state and Provide services and apply principles that do not 	federal statutes and regulations, including FERPA and discriminate on the basis of race, gender, ethnicity,	the Higher Education Act, Section 483(a)(3)(E) (20 sexual orientation, religion, disability, age, or economic	U.S.C. 1090).
status.	Protect the information on the FAFSA from Understand the need for financial education and 	inappropriate use by ensuring that this information is only commit to educate students and families on how to	used for the application, award, and administration of aid responsibly manage expenses and debt.	awarded under Title IV of the Higher Education Act, state aid, or aid awarded by eligible institutions.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Institutional members of NASFAA will ensure that:

1. No action will be taken by financial aid staff that is for their personal benefit or could be perceived to be a conflict of interest.	2. Information provided by the financial aid office is accurate, unbiased, and does not reflect preference arising from actual or potential personal gain.
 a. Employees within the financial aid office will not award aid to themselves or their immediate family members. Staff will reserve this task to an institutionally designated person, to avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest. b. If a preferred lender list is provided, it will be compiled without prejudice and for the sole benefit of the students attending the institution. The information included about lenders and loan terms will be transparent, complete, and accurate. The complete process through which preferred lenders are selected will be fully and publically disclosed. Borrowers will not be auto-assigned to any particular lender. c. A borrower's choice of a lender will not be denied, impeded, or unnecessarily delayed by the institution, even if that lender is not included on the institution's preferred lender list. d. No amount of cash, gift, or benefit in excess of a de minimis amount shall be accepted by a financial aid staff member from any financial aid applicant (or his/her family), or from any entity doing business with or seeking to do business with the institution (including service on advisory committees or boards beyond reimbursement for reasonable expenses directly associated with such service). 	 3. Institutional award notifications and/or other institutionally provided materials shall include the following: a. A breakdown of individual components of the institution's Cost of Attendance, designating all potential billable charges. b. Clear identification of each award, indicating type of aid, i.e. gift aid (grant, scholarship), work, or loan. c. Standard terminology and definitions, using NASFAA's glossary of award letter terms. d. Renewal requirements for each award. 4. All required consumer information is displayed in a prominent location on the institutional web site(s) and in any printed materials, easily identified and found, and labeled as "Consumer Information." 5. Financial aid professionals will disclose to their institution any involvement, interest in, or potential conflict of interest with any entity with which the institution has a business relationship.