Gift Assistance

Mount Marty College Awards and Scholarships - Institutional merit awards are credited to the student's account at the beginning of each semester. The awards are divided evenly per semester as indicated on the financial aid award letter.

Federal Pell Grant - The Federal Pell Grant Program provides gift assistance to eligible students pursuing their first bachelor's degree. Eligibility is determined by the EFC number on your Student Aid Report. The amount of the Pell Grant varies based on enrollment status and is reduced for students below full-time enrollment. Your Pell Grant will be credited directly to your student account at the beginning of each semester after enrollment is verified. Students eligibility to receive a Pell Grant is limited to the equivalent of six years.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) - An SEOG is for undergraduate students pursuing their first bachelor's degree. In order to receive this grant you need to show exceptional need. Priority is given to students who receive Federal Pell Grants. Your SEOG will be credited directly to your student account at the beginning of each semester after enrollment is verified. Funds for this program are limited.

South Dakota Opportunity Scholarship (SDOS) - To qualify for an SDOS, a student must be a resident of South Dakota at the time of high school graduation. Visit the South Dakota Opportunity Scholarship website at sdos.sdbor.edu for scholarship requirements and application forms. The scholarship is up to $6,500.00 for four years if students meet renewal criteria.

Outside Scholarships and Grants - Scholarships and Grants which you receive from outside agencies must be reported to the Mount Marty College Financial Assistance Office promptly in order to avoid an overaward situation. If an over award does occur, the Financial Assistance Office, in accordance with federal guidelines, will reduce/cancel loans first and then work study. Grant awards will only be cancelled if absolutely necessary after loans and work study, if an over award condition still exists. If you have questions regarding the eligibility or disbursement procedures for your outside scholarships, contact the agency that awarded the scholarship.

Work Programs

Federal Work-Study (FWS) - The Federal Work-Study Program provides jobs for undergraduate and graduate students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to help pay educational expenses. The amount of FWS you are eligible to earn is shown on your Mount Marty College Financial Aid Award Letter. Your FWS wages will be at least the current federal or state minimum wage, but may be higher, depending on the type of work you do and the skills required. Funds are limited.

Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loans are available to parents of dependent undergraduate students. PLUS borrowers will need to pass a credit check to determine eligibility. If a parent is unable to borrow a PLUS loan, their dependent student may be eligible to borrow additional funds under the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan Program. PLUS Loan eligibility is not based on need. The student must be enrolled at least half-time. The annual limit on a PLUS Loan is equal to the student's cost of attendance minus any other financial aid received. The interest rate on a PLUS loan is a fixed interest rate determined every July 1 based on the 10-year Treasury Note Index. An origination fee is charged by the U.S. Department of Education. The loan funds are sent directly to the school and repayment begins on the date of the final loan disbursement for the academic year. In school deferment and forbearance options may be available. During deferment, interest may be paid by the parent or capitalized. First-time parent borrowers can apply for their PLUS loan by going to www.studentloans.gov, select “Parent Borrowers” and then “Apply for a PLUS Loan.” After completing the PLUS application, select “Complete Loan Agreement for a PLUS Loan (MPN)”.
Payment of College Charges

Payment of tuition, fees and other charges on your college account must be made by the end of the first week of classes each semester, unless satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Mount Marty College Business Office. Payment plans are available through the Mount Marty College Business Office.

Changes in Your Status

Reducing Credit Hours - If a student drops from full-time to part-time status or if a part-time student drops courses within the 100% refund period, the student's financial aid is recalculated based on their new status. Charges are also recalculated to account for the change in enrollment. Financial aid may need to be returned to the aid accounts and the student may need to repay a portion of the financial aid received.

Withdrawal from college - Refunds and/or tuition adjustments are given to students who officially withdraw from the college. If you receive federal grants or loans and withdraw within 60% of the start of the semester, you may be required to return all or a portion of the federal funds you received, according to federal regulations. This may then cause you to owe a repayment to the federal government or the college. Refer to the Mount Marty College Catalog for more information.

Housing Plans - Changes in a student's housing plan may affect their financial aid package. Refer to the housing policy in your Student Handbook or contact the Student Affairs Office.

Financial Aid Budgets and Expected Family Contribution

A student's financial aid budget, or cost of attendance, includes items such as tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, personal/miscellaneous expenses, and transportation expenses. Budget items, such as room/board and personal expenses, vary depending on whether the student lives on-campus, off-campus, or with parents. The student's direct educational expenses can be found on-line at www.mtmc.edu/tuition-and-aid/tuition-costs. Educational cost of attendance budgets can be found at www.mtmc.edu/tuition-and-aid/tuition_aid_consumer_info_page.

The Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is an estimate of the family's ability to contribute toward the student's education. The EFC is calculated from information provided by the student on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The student's financial aid budget minus their EFC equals the student's need. The types and amounts of financial aid a student receives is based on this need.

Reapplying for Financial Aid

You will need to reapply for Federal Financial Aid annually. You should receive a Renewal Reminder sent by the Federal Processor to the email address you reported on your FAFSA. This will provide information to you on applying for federal aid for the next academic year. You can complete your FAFSA on the Web for the next academic year by going on-line at https://studentaid.ed.gov. You, along with a parent if you are dependent, can electronically sign your FAFSA. Mount Marty College's priority filing date for the FAFSA is March 1. Feel free to contact the Financial Assistance Office with any questions on reapplying for federal aid.
Federal Direct Loans

Federal Direct Loans are available through the US Department of Education. Students must file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid to determine eligibility. A Federal Direct Loan can be either subsidized or unsubsidized.

A subsidized loan is awarded on the basis of financial need. Students receiving a subsidized loan will not be charged any interest while enrolled at least half-time. The federal government subsidizes or pays for the interest on the loan while the student is enrolled at least half-time. The interest rate for undergraduate Direct Subsidized Loans is a fixed interest rate and is determined every July 1 based on the 10-year Treasury Note Index. Subsidized loans are not available to graduate students. There is a limit on the maximum period of time (measured in academic years) that you can receive Direct Subsidized Loans. In general, you may not receive Direct Subsidized Loans for more than 150% of the published length of your program. After you have received Direct Subsidized Loans for your maximum eligibility period, you are no longer eligible to receive additional Direct Subsidized Loans. However, you may continue to receive Direct Unsubsidized Loans. In addition, if you continue to be enrolled in any undergraduate program after you have received Direct Subsidized Loans for your maximum eligibility period, the US Department of Education will no longer pay the interest that accrues on your Direct Subsidized Loans for periods when they otherwise would do so.

An unsubsidized loan is not awarded on the basis of need. The student is responsible for the interest on the loan from the time the loan is disbursed until the loan is paid in full. If you allow interest to accumulate, it will be capitalized—that is, the interest will be added to the principal amount of the loan and additional interest will be based on the higher amount. The interest rate on Direct Unsubsidized Loans is a fixed interest rate and is determined every July 1 based on the 10-year Treasury Note Index.

Students are encouraged to compare options and have a thorough understanding of these loan programs before applying.

Alternative loans may have substantially higher interest rates than Federal Loan Programs. Parents of dependent undergraduate students are encouraged to compare the PLUS Loan option for their dependent student.

Special Circumstances

If you or your parents have incurred unusual circumstances which are not reflected on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (such as loss of employment) that might affect your need for financial aid, please contact the Mount Marty College Financial Assistance Office.

Federal Student Aid Program policies are subject to change by Congressional action or U.S. Department of Education mandates.
In order to receive Federal Student Aid, the U.S. Department of Education requires that students maintain satisfactory academic progress toward the completion of their degree.

Federal Student Aid includes Federal Pell Grant, Federal TEACH Grant, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG), Federal Work-Study, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Direct Loan (Subsidized and Unsubsidized), and Federal Direct PLUS Loan.

Also, other Federal Agencies may require students to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress for their aid programs. The academic record of all students will be monitored to ensure compliance with the requirements specified below. Therefore, even the academic record of those who have not received Federal Student Aid in the past may impact future eligibility. Failure to meet the following standards will result in financial aid suspension of eligibility for Federal Student Aid. A review takes place at the end of every term (fall, spring, summer).

Undergraduate Students:
An undergraduate student must meet minimum academic progression standards. These standards are based on the student’s cumulative grade point average. The cumulative grade point average is calculated in accordance with the Mount Marty College institutional grading policy. All audited coursework is excluded from this calculation. Making satisfactory academic progression is as follows:

1. A student with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or better is considered to be in good academic standing.
2. If a student’s cumulative grade point average falls below 2.0 in any academic term (i.e. fall, spring, summer), the student is placed on financial aid warning the following term.
3. While on financial aid warning, the student must earn a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or better.
4. When a student on financial aid warning achieves a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or better, the student is returned to good academic standing.
5. A student on financial aid warning who fails to maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or better is placed on financial aid suspension.

Graduate Students:
A graduate student must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.0.

In order to maintain satisfactory progress toward the completion of their degree, all students must successfully complete 67% of cumulative attempted credit hours. Attempted credit hours include all hours that would appear on a student’s academic transcript at the end of any given term, including withdrawals, incompletes, repeated courses, remedial coursework, transfer hours and hours attempted at any time when not receiving Federal Student Aid. Audited coursework is not included. Hours that may have been part of a successful academic amnesty appeal will still be included. Successfully completed hours for undergraduate students include grades of A, B, C, D and P. Successfully completed hours for graduate students include grades of A, B, C, and P. All other grades would not be considered successful completion. Evaluation of this quantitative standard will be measured at the end of each term.

The U.S. Department of Education has established a limit on the number of credit hours a student can attempt and still remain eligible for Federal Student Aid. This limit is based on 150% of the credit hours needed to complete the degree for which the student is pursuing. Students can consult the College Catalog to find the duration of their program and then multiply that number by 1.5 to determine the credit hour limit that applies to their financial aid. Examples are listed below:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type of Degree</th>
<th>Maximum Credit Hours Attempted</th>

<td>Two-Year Associate</td>
<td>96</td>
</tr>
<tr>

Course Incompletes, Transfer Credits, Withdrawals, Repetitions & Remedial Courses & Academic Suspension

Remedial Courses: The College offers a limited number of remedial coursework. These credits are included in credits attempted and GPA is also calculated. However, these credits may not be applied toward graduation requirements.

Incomplete Courses: Courses shown as incomplete at the end of the term will have the credits calculated as attempted, but no GPA for the incomplete will be calculated. A grade of “I” (incomplete) may be changed to a passing grade within one term from the date of award of this grade if the student satisfactorily completes all the course requirements as set by the course instructor. Otherwise after this period “I” will automatically be changed to an “F” and SAP will be calculated on the “F” grade.

Transfer Credits: All transfer credits accepted for the student’s program of study at the College will be counted as “attempted” and “completed” credits. Transfer credits will not be included in the calculation of the student’s GPA.

Withdrawals: After census date, a student may withdraw from a course through 60% of the term and receive a grade of “W”. Credits with a status of “W” will be counted as attempted credits with no GPA calculation. Students that withdraw from the College after the 60% point in the term are assigned grades of “WP” (withdrawal passing) or “WF” (withdrawal failing). WP grades are counted as attempted credits with no GPA calculation while WF grades are counted as attempted credits with an “F” GPA calculated. The College performs “Return of Title IV Funds” calculations for all withdrawing students per the “Return of Title IV Funds” Policy. If a withdrawn student returns back to the College, the College will apply the SAP policy in continuation of the student’s SAP status at the time of the withdrawal.

Repeating Courses: When a student fails to earn a required grade for their program, the student will be responsible for any additional cost incurred for retaking the course. All repeated courses will be included in credits attempted. Only the GPA from the “best” grade will be used in the calculation of the GPA.

Changing Programs of Study: A student changing from one major to another or adding an additional major will need to complete a change of major form. All of the student’s attempted credits are counted toward the 150% eligibility. SAP-status of a student will be applied in continuation from one major to the other.

Enrolling in a Second Program of Study: Students that have declared more than one major, may pursue their programs concurrently. Maximum duration for SAP will be based on 150% of the standard program degree requirements.

Academic Suspension: Students placed on any type of academic suspension other than failure to meet cumulative qualitative and quantitative academic progress standards immediately lose financial aid eligibility until the student is reinstated to the program.

Appeal Of Financial Aid Suspension

Students who have had their eligibility for Federal Student Aid suspended may complete an appeal form to explain mitigating circumstances. There is no guarantee for approving a financial aid eligibility appeal. Such appeals will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis. Appeal forms are available in the Mount Marty College Financial Assistance Office or on the Mount Marty College Financial Assistance website. If an appeal is granted, the student will be placed on financial aid probation for one semester in order to meet satisfactory academic progress standards. The student may also be placed on an academic plan to regain satisfactory academic progress. If the student has not met the satisfactory academic progress standards after their one semester of probation, their financial aid will be suspended. Likewise, if the student fails to achieve the conditions of their academic plan as provided in their appeal, their financial aid will be suspended. To ensure a timely review, students should make an appeal at least one month in advance of the start of the term for which they wish to receive aid.

If a student is academically suspended for reasons other than failure to meet the cumulative quantitative and qualitative academic progress standards, and is subsequently reinstated to his or her program of study, the student may also be reinstated to financial aid eligibility as long as the student is otherwise eligible to receive financial aid. A separate appeals process is not necessary to reinstate financial aid eligibility under these circumstances. Eligibility will only be reinstated upon confirmation from the Registrar and/or Admissions office that the student has been officially reinstated to the program and is in good standing as a regularly admitted student.

Reinstatement Of Financial Aid Eligibility

Students who have lost their Federal Aid eligibility, but have subsequently met the qualitative and/or quantitative standards as stated above, will have their aid eligibility reinstated. Reinstatement will be considered effective with the next term of attendance.

Satisfactory Academic Progress & Non-Federal Aid

There are also non-federal sources of financial assistance (institutional, local, private, state), which may require students to meet satisfactory academic progress standards. Students who apply for non-federal forms of aid are advised to review their academic standards in order to determine or ensure continued eligibility. Mount Marty College institutional aid has the same Financial Aid Suspension guidelines as stated above.
